

Enactus Students and Sustainability Division Conduct Recycling Audit

Friday, April 3, 2015, By Keith Kobland

The SU Enactus Student group is partnering with Syracuse University Sustainability Division and Syracuse Haulers (SU's waste hauler) to perform two waste audits, the purpose of which is to get a better sense of how the campus community is recycling. This video was produced by Michael Helfenbein '16, work-study student in the Office of News Services.
